

MA Healthcare

Publish your research as Open Access with MA Healthcare

NHS Scotland staff receive 50% off article processing charges (APCs).

As a member of NHS Scotland, you can now publish your research Open Access in a range of trusted MA Healthcare journals at half the usual cost. Eligible journals include:

Make your research accessible to a global audience, advance your career, and contribute to the collective knowledge of your field.

Why choose MA Healthcare?

At MA Healthcare, we're dedicated to advancing healthcare knowledge and practice. Here's why publishing with us is the right choice:

Wide range of specialised journals

From nursing and midwifery to allied health, we cover the complete spectrum of healthcare specialties. Your research will reach the exact audience it deserves.

Global reach

MA Healthcare journals are trusted by healthcare professionals, educators, and researchers worldwide. Your work will have a global impact.

Pedigree and legacy

Our journals, such as the British Journal of Nursing, Journal of Kidney Care, and British Journal of Midwifery, have a rich history and are renowned for their quality and clarity.

Resources for professional development

We provide not only research articles but also updates, guidance, and resources to support your professional growth.

Need help or more information?

If you have any queries or need further information, please contact your local NHS Scotland library service

Scan the QR code to view local library contacts on the Knowledge Network here: